1. Defined terms

1.1 In this Constitution unless the contrary intention appears:

ACNC Act means the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 (Cth), or any other legislation relating to the establishment or operation of an Australian charities commission and/or a national regulatory framework and/or national education body or otherwise for the not-for-profit sector, and includes:

- (a) any regulations made under that Act or any other such legislation; and
- (b) any rulings or requirements of the Commissioner of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission under that Act, or any commissioner or body under any other such legislation, having application to the Company.

Associate Member means a member of the Company admitted to membership as an Associate Member in accordance with clause 8.

Auditor means the Company's auditor or Reviewer (as the case may be).

Casual Director means a person appointed as an alternate director under clause 33.

Committee means a group of members of the Company to whom delegation has been given by the Directors under clause 42.

Company means Lycee Condorcet the International French School of Sydney Ltd ACN 003 977 160.

Constitution means the constitution of the Company as amended from time to time.

Corporations Act means the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) as modified or amended from time to time and includes any regulations made under that Act and any exemption or modification to that Act applying to the Company and includes the Imported Provisions.

Director includes any person occupying the position of director of the Company and includes Member Directors and Board Directors as described in clause 30.

Directors means all or some of the Directors acting as a board.

Imported Provisions means the following provisions of the Corporations Act:

- (a) Section 139 (Company must send copy of constitution to member);
- (b) Sections 191 to 194 (disclosure of, and voting on matters involving, material personal interests);
- (c) Divisions 1 and 3 to 7 of Part 2G.2 (meetings of members of companies); and
- (d) Part 2G.3 (minutes and members' access to minutes).

Member means a member of the Company admitted to membership under clause 8 and includes Parent Members and Associate Members.

Objects means the objects of the Company set out in clause 5.

NSW Education Standards Authority means the board of studies constituted under the Education Act 1990 (NSW) from time to time.

Parent Member means a member of the Company admitted to membership as a Parent Member in accordance with clause 8.

Register means the register of Members of the Company.

Registered Entity means a body corporate registered under the ACNC Act.

Reviewer means a reviewer under the ACNC Act.

Seal means the Company's common seal (if any).

Secretary means any person appointed by the Directors to perform any of the duties of a secretary of the Company and if there are joint secretaries, any one or more of those joint secretaries.

School means the school constituted by the Company.

- 1.2 In this Constitution, except where the context otherwise requires, a word or expression in a clause of this Constitution has the same meaning as in the Corporations Act. Where the word or expression has more than one meaning in the Corporations Act and a provision of the Corporations Act deals with the same matter as a clause of this Constitution, that word or expression has the same meaning as in that provision.

2. Interpretation

In this Constitution, except where the context otherwise requires:

- (a) the singular includes the plural and vice versa, and a gender includes other genders;
- (b) another grammatical form of a defined word or expression has a corresponding meaning;
- (c) headings are for ease of reference only and do not affect interpretation;
- (d) a reference to a clause, paragraph, schedule or annexure is to a clause or paragraph of, or schedule or annexure to, this Constitution, and a reference to this Constitution includes any schedule or annexure;
- (e) a reference to a document or instrument includes the document or instrument as novated, altered, supplemented or replaced from time to time;
- (f) a reference to A$, $A, dollar or $ is to Australian currency;
- (g) a reference to time is a reference to Sydney, Australia time;
- (h) a reference to a statute, ordinance, code or other law includes regulations and other instruments made under it and consolidations, amendments, re-enactments or replacements of any of them; and
- (i) the meaning of general words is not limited by specific examples introduced by including, for example or similar expressions.

3. Application of the Corporations Act

- 3.1 If, while the Company is a Registered Entity, the Corporations Act operates such that an Imported Provision does not apply to the Company because the Company is a Registered Entity:

- (a) a clause in the same terms as the Imported Provision, along with any relevant definitions in the Corporations Act, is deemed to be included in this Constitution and to apply to the Company to the extent the Imported Provision would have applied to the Company were the Company not a Registered Entity (Equivalent Clause); and
- (b) a reference in this Constitution to an Imported Provision is deemed to be a reference to the Equivalent Clause.

- 3.2 For the purposes of this Constitution, if the provisions of the Corporations Act or the ACNC Act conflict with the terms of this Constitution on the same matter, the provisions of the relevant Act prevail to the extent of the conflict.

4. Replaceable rules

To the extent permitted by law, the replaceable rules in the Corporations Act do not apply to the Company.

Objects

5. Objects

- 5.1 The Company is established for the object of operating a co-educational school for children, irrespective of their social, religious or cultural background (the School), which:
- (a) subject to any requirement of the NSW Education Standards Authority:
 - (i) provides co-education according to both the French and Australian and NSW curriculums of a totally non-sectarian nature and without any religious bias whatsoever;
 - (i) conducts education in both French and English;
 - (ii) conducts tuition using the French method of instruction (to allow students to continue their education in France or other places around the world); and
 - (b) takes an active part in the community life of Sydney by providing for the delivery and holding of lectures, public meetings, classes and conferences which advance the cause of education, any such activities or instruction to be of the highest professional and educational standard.
- 5.2 The Company may only exercise the powers granted in section 124(1) of the Corporations Act to:
- (a) carry out the Objects set out in this clause; and
 - (b) do all things incidental or convenient in relation to the exercise of power under clause 5.2(a).
- 5.3 When interpreting the Objects, each Object should be construed separately and independently of any other and each object should be interpreted as if none of the other Objects is contained in that clause.

Income and property of Company

6. Income and property of Company

- 6.1 The income and property of the Company will only be applied towards the promotion of the Objects of the Company set out in clause 5.
- 6.2 No income or property will be paid or transferred directly or indirectly to any Member of the Company except for payments to a Member:
- (a) in return for any services rendered or goods supplied in the ordinary and usual course of business to the Company; or
 - (b) of interest at a rate not exceeding current bank overdraft rates of interest for moneys lent.

Membership

7. Classes of membership

- 7.1 A Member of the Company shall be either a Parent Member or an Associate Member.
- 7.2 Notwithstanding anything else in this Constitution, Associate Members of the Company are limited to 50 Members.
- 7.3 Associate Members and their proxies and their attorneys are not entitled to vote on a special resolution to modify or repeal this Constitution.

8. Admission

- 8.1 A person is eligible to be admitted to Membership if the person:
- (a) has never been a registrable person for the purposes of the Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000 (NSW) nor ever been convicted of an indictable offence;
 - (b) is not an undischarged bankrupt;
 - (c) in the case of a Parent Member, they are the legal guardian of a student who is enrolled in the School; and
 - (d) in the case of an Associate Member, in the opinion of the Board, is likely to enhance and benefit the School by being an Associate Member.
- 8.2 Applications for Associate Membership of the Company must be in writing, signed by the applicant, in a form approved by the Directors in their absolute discretion and be nominated and seconded by an existing Member who personally knows the person applying for Membership.
- 8.3 The Directors will consider each application for Associate Membership at the next meeting of Directors after the application is received. In considering an application for Associate Membership, the Directors may:
- (a) accept the application, if such acceptance will not lead to the Membership exceeding the limits imposed by clause 7.2;
 - (b) reject the application; or
 - (c) ask the applicant to give more evidence of eligibility or suitability for Membership.
- 8.4 If the Directors ask for more evidence under clause 8.3, their determination of the application for Membership is to be deferred until the evidence is given.
- 8.5 The Directors do not have to give any reason for rejecting an application for Associate Membership.
- 8.6 The rights and privileges of every Member are personal to each Member and are not transferable by the Member's own act or by operation of law.
- 8.7 The Directors may define the duration of the appointment of Associate Members, which cannot exceed 3 years, and may determine that an entrance fee is payable by each Associate Member and the terms on which the entrance fee is payable.

9. Ceasing to be a Member

- 9.1 A Member's membership of the Company will immediately cease:
- (a) if the Member gives the Secretary written notice of resignation, from the date of receipt of that notice by the Secretary;
 - (b) if the Member becomes, in their absolute discretion of the Directors, an untraceable Member because the person has ceased to reside at, attend or otherwise communicate with his or her registered address for a period exceeding 12 months;
 - (c) if a majority of three-quarters of the Directors present and voting at a meeting of Directors by resolution terminate the membership of a Member:
 - (i) whose conduct in their opinion renders it undesirable that that Member continue to be a Member of the Company; and
 - (ii) who has been given at least 21 days' notice of the resolution and has had the opportunity to be heard at the meeting at which the resolution is proposed; or
 - (d) if the Member:
 - (i) dies;

- (ii) becomes mentally incapacitated or whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the laws relating to mental health;
- (iii) is a registrable person for the purposes of the Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000 (NSW) or is convicted of an indictable offence;
- (iv) files or is the subject of a petition for bankruptcy;
- (v) in the case of a Parent Member, they cease to be the legal guardian of a student enrolled in the School;
- (vi) in the case of an Associate Member, at the end of their appointment period; or
- (vii) ceases to meet the requirements for eligibility for membership set out in clause 8.1.

10. Powers of attorney

- 10.1 If a Member executes or proposes to execute any document or do any act by or through an attorney which affects the Company or the Member's membership in the Company, that Member must deliver the instrument appointing the attorney to the Company for notation.
- 10.2 If the Company asks the Member to file with it a certified copy of the instrument for the Company to retain, the Member will promptly comply with that request.
- 10.3 The Company may ask for whatever evidence it thinks appropriate that the power of attorney is effective and continues to be in force.

General meetings

11. Annual general meeting

- 11.1 A general meeting, called the annual general meeting, must be held once in every calendar year at such time and place as may be determined by the Directors.
- 11.2 While the Company is a Registered Entity, the chairperson of an annual general meeting must allow a reasonable opportunity for the Members as a whole at the meeting to ask questions about, and make comments on, the management of the Company.

12. Calling general meeting

- 12.1 Any Director may, at any time, call a general meeting.
- 12.2 A general meeting may be held at two or more venues using any technology that gives the Members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate.
- 12.3 The Directors must call and arrange to hold a general meeting on the request of:
 - (a) Members with at least 20% of the votes that may be cast at the general meeting; or
 - (b) at least 250 Members who are entitled to vote at the general meeting.

13. Notice of general meeting

- 13.1 Subject to the provisions of the Corporations Act allowing general meetings to be held with shorter notice, at least 21 days' written notice (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which notice is given) must be given to Members of any general meeting.

- 13.2 A notice calling a general meeting:
- (a) must specify the place, date and time of the meeting and if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this;
 - (b) must state the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting; and
 - (c) may specify a place, facsimile number and electronic address for the purposes of proxy appointment.
- 13.3 A notice of an annual general meeting need not state that the business to be transacted at the meeting includes:
- (a) the consideration of the annual financial report, Directors' report and the Auditor's report (if any);
 - (b) the election of directors; or
 - (c) the appointment and fixing of the remuneration of the Auditor (if any).
- 13.4 The Directors may postpone or cancel any general meeting whenever they think fit (other than a meeting called as the result of a request under clause 12.2).
- 13.5 The Directors must give notice of the postponement or cancellation of a general meeting to all persons referred to in clause 50.1 entitled to receive notices from the Company.
- 13.6 An accidental omission to send a notice of a general meeting (including a proxy appointment form) to any Member or the non-receipt of a notice (or form) by any Member does not invalidate the proceedings at or any resolution passed at the general meeting.

Proceedings at general meetings

14. Member

In clauses 15, 16, 18 and 24, Member includes a Member present in person or by proxy or attorney.

15. Quorum

- 15.1 No business may be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present when the meeting proceeds to business.
- 15.2 A quorum of Members is any 30 Members.
- 15.3 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for a general meeting:
- (a) if the general meeting was called on the requisition of Members, it is automatically dissolved; or
 - (b) in any other case:
 - (i) it will stand adjourned to the same time and place seven days after the meeting, or to another day, time and place determined by the Directors; and
 - (ii) if at the adjourned general meeting a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the general meeting, the general meeting is automatically dissolved.

16. Chairperson

- 16.1 The chairperson, or in the chairperson's absence the deputy chairperson, of Directors' meetings will be the chairperson at every general meeting.

- 16.2 The Directors present may elect a chairperson of a general meeting if:
- (a) there is no chairperson or deputy chairperson; or
 - (b) neither the chairperson nor deputy chairperson is present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the general meeting; or
 - (c) the chairperson and deputy chairperson are unwilling to act as chairperson of the general meeting.
- 16.3 If the Directors make no election under clause 16.2 when they are entitled to do so, then:
- (a) the Members may elect one of the Directors present as chairperson; or
 - (b) if no Director is present or is willing to take the chair, the Members may elect one of the Members present as chairperson.
- 16.4 If there is a dispute at a general meeting about a question of procedure, the chairperson may determine the question.
- 16.5 The general conduct of each general meeting of the Company and the procedures to be adopted at the meeting will be determined by the chairperson.

17. Adjournment

- 17.1 The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present:
- (a) in his or her discretion may adjourn the general meeting with the meeting's consent; and
 - (b) must adjourn the general meeting if the meeting directs him or her to do so.
- 17.2 An adjourned general meeting may take place at a different venue to the initial general meeting.
- 17.3 The only business that can be transacted at an adjourned general meeting is the unfinished business of the initial general meeting.
- 17.4 Notice of an adjourned general meeting must only be given in accordance with clause 13.1 if a general meeting has been adjourned for more than 21 days.

18. Decision on questions

- 18.1 Subject to the Corporations Act and clause 7.3 in relation to special resolutions, a resolution is carried if a majority of the votes cast on the resolution are in favour of the resolution.
- 18.2 A resolution put to the vote of a meeting is to be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded in accordance with the Corporations Act.
- 18.3 Unless a poll is demanded:
- (a) a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has been carried, carried by a specified majority, or lost; and
 - (b) an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting,
- are conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes in favour of or against the resolution.
- 18.4 The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- 18.5 A decision of a general meeting may not be impeached or invalidated on the ground that a person voting at the general meeting was not entitled to do so.

19. Taking a poll

- 19.1 If a poll is demanded under clause 18.2, a poll will be taken when and in the manner that the chairperson directs.

- 19.2 The result of the poll will be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 19.3 The chairperson may determine any dispute about the admission or rejection of a vote.
- 19.4 The chairperson's determination, if made in good faith, will be final and conclusive.
- 19.5 A poll demanded on the election of the chairperson or the adjournment of a general meeting must be taken immediately.
- 19.6 After a poll has been demanded at a general meeting, the general meeting may continue for the transaction of business other than the question on which the poll was demanded.

20. Written resolutions of Members

- 20.1 Subject to the Corporations Act, the Company may pass a resolution without a general meeting being held if all the Members entitled to vote on the resolution sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document. The resolution is passed when the last Member signs the document.
- 20.2 For the purposes of clause 20.1, separate copies of a document may be used for signing by Members if the wording of the resolution and statement is identical in each copy.
- 20.3 Any document referred to in this clause 20 may be in the form of a facsimile or electronic transmission.
- 20.4 For the purposes of clause 20.1 a document will be taken to be signed by a Member if it:
- (a) includes or is accompanied by a personal identification code allocated by the Company to the Member; or
 - (b) has been authorised by the Member in another manner approved by the Directors.

21. Casting vote of chairperson

The chairperson does not have a casting vote in addition to the chairperson's votes as a Member, proxy or attorney.

22. Offensive material

A person may be refused admission to, or required to leave and not return to, a meeting if the person:

- (a) refuses to permit examination of any article in the person's possession; or
- (b) is in possession of any:
 - (i) electronic or recording device;
 - (ii) placard or banner; or
 - (iii) other article, which the chairperson considers to be dangerous, offensive or liable to cause disruption.

23. Recording of general meetings

Subject to any applicable statutory restrictions, each Member consents to general meetings being recorded by any technology (including audio and/or visual) for the purpose of preparing minutes of general meetings.

Votes of Members

24. Entitlement to vote

24.1 Subject to this Constitution, on a show of hands and on a poll every Member has one vote.

25. Objections

25.1 An objection to the qualification of a voter may only be raised at the general meeting or adjourned general meeting at which the voter tendered its vote.

25.2 An objection must be referred to the chairperson of the general meeting, whose decision is final.

25.3 A vote which the chairperson does not disallow because of an objection is valid for all purposes.

26. Votes by proxy

26.1 If a Member appoints a proxy, proxies or an attorney, the proxy, proxies or attorney may not vote on a show of hands.

26.2 A proxy may but need not be a Member.

26.3 A proxy may demand or join in demanding a poll.

26.4 A proxy or attorney may vote on a poll.

26.5 A proxy may vote or abstain as he or she chooses except where the appointment of the proxy directs the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution. If a proxy votes at all, the proxy will be deemed to have voted all directed proxies in the manner directed.

26.6 Any person acting as a proxy or attorney for a Member shall not act as proxy or attorney for more than 3 Members.

27. Document appointing proxy

27.1 An appointment of a proxy is valid if it is signed by the Member making the appointment and contains the information required by subsection 250A(1) of the Corporations Act. The Directors may determine that an appointment of proxy is valid even if it only contains some of the information required by section 250A(1) of the Corporations Act.

27.2 For the purposes of clause 27.1, an appointment received at an electronic address will be taken to be signed by the Member if:

(a) a personal identification code allocated by the Company to the Member has been input into the appointment; or

(b) the appointment has been verified in another manner approved by the Directors.

27.3 A proxy's appointment is valid at an adjourned general meeting.

27.4 A proxy or attorney may be appointed for all general meetings or for any number of general meetings or for a particular purpose.

27.5 Unless otherwise provided for in the proxy's appointment or in any instrument appointing an attorney (and subject to clause 7.3), the appointment of the proxy or the attorney will be taken to confer authority:

(a) to vote on:

(i) any amendment moved to the proposed resolutions and on any motion that the proposed resolution not be put or any similar motion; and

- (ii) any procedural motion, including any motion to elect the chairperson, to vacate the chair or to adjourn the general meeting, even though the appointment may specify the way the proxy or attorney is to vote on a particular resolution; and
 - (b) to vote on any motion before the general meeting whether or not the motion is referred to in the appointment.
- 27.6 If a proxy appointment is signed by the Member but does not name the proxy or proxies in whose favour it is given, the chairperson may either cast as proxy or complete the appointment by inserting the name or names of one or more Directors or the Secretary.

28. Lodgement of proxy

- 28.1 The written appointment of a proxy or attorney must be received by the Company, at least 48 hours (unless otherwise specified in the notice of meeting to which the proxy relates) before:
- (a) the time for holding the general meeting or adjourned general meeting at which the appointee proposes to vote; or
 - (b) the taking of a poll on which the appointee proposes to vote.
- 28.2 The Company receives an appointment of a proxy and any power of attorney or other authority under which it was executed when they are received at:
- (a) the Company's registered office;
 - (b) a facsimile number at the Company's registered office; or
 - (c) a place, facsimile number or electronic address specified for that purpose in the notice of meeting.

29. Validity

A vote cast in accordance with an appointment of proxy or power of attorney is valid even if before the vote was cast the appointor:

- (a) died;
- (b) became mentally incapacitated; or
- (c) revoked the proxy or power,

unless any written notification of the death, unsoundness of mind or revocation was received by the Company before the relevant general meeting or adjourned general meeting.

Directors

30. Appointment and removal of Directors

- 30.1 The Company shall have minimum of 8 and maximum of 10 Directors.
- 30.2 Subject to clause 30.5(e), the Directors shall comprise:
- (a) at least 4 but no more than 6 directors elected by the Members of the Company (Member Directors); and
 - (b) a maximum of 4 directors appointed by the Board (Board Directors).
- 30.3 All Directors must be members of the Company.
- 30.4 The following individuals must be invited to meetings of the Board to attend as observers, unless the Board determines in its absolute discretion that it is not appropriate for a person to attend in light of the proposed discussion at any meeting or part of a meeting of the Board:

- (a) one representative of the primary school teachers;
- (b) one representative of the secondary school teachers;
- (c) the school principal;
- (d) the French Consul in Australia; and
- (e) the French Cooperation & Cultural Counsellor in Australia.

30.5 The election of Member Directors shall take place in the following manner:

- (a) Any two Members of the Company shall be at liberty to nominate any other member to serve as a Member Director (Nominee).
- (b) The nomination, which shall be in writing and signed by the Nominee and his or her proposer and seconder shall be lodged with the Secretary at least fourteen days before the annual general meeting at which the election is to take place.
- (c) A list of the Nominees' names in alphabetical order, with the proposers' and seconders' names shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the registered office of the Company and on the official website of the company for at least ten days immediately preceding the annual general meeting.
- (d) Balloting lists shall be prepared containing the names of the Nominees and a short statement from the candidate outlining their skills and expertise for holding directorship. The list shall be only in alphabetical order.
- (e) In the case there shall not be sufficient number of Nominees nominated the vacancies will be filled up as described in clause 33.
- (f) The number of Member Directors required to meet the requirements of clauses 30.1 and 30.2 shall be elected by the Members at each annual general meeting from the Nominees.

30.6 Subject to applicable law, if the Board considers in its discretion, acting reasonably, that the conduct or position of any Director is such that continuance in office is likely to be prejudicial to the interests of the Company, the Board, at a meeting of the Directors specifically called for that purpose, may suspend that Director.

The relevant Director will not be eligible to vote on such resolution.

30.7 As soon as possible after the suspension (subject to the notice provisions in the Corporations Act and this Constitution), the Directors must call a general meeting, at which the Members may either confirm the suspension and remove the Director from office or annul the suspension and reinstate the Director.

31. Retirement

31.1 All Directors must retire from office at the conclusion of the third annual general meeting after the Director was last elected or appointed.

31.2 Subject to clause 31.3, a retiring Director is eligible for re-election or re-appointment.

31.3 Subject to clause 31.4, any person (including the appointees) who has been a Director for six consecutive years is not eligible to be a Director for a period of 2 years after those six years' service.

31.4 The Directors may, by a two-thirds majority, resolve that a person is eligible to be a Director if that person would otherwise not be eligible solely by operation of clause 31.3.

32. Vacation of office

A person immediately ceases to be a Director if he or she:

- (a) becomes ineligible to be a Director under the ACNC Act while the Company is a Registered Entity;
- (b) ceases to be a Director by virtue of the Corporations Act;
- (c) is prohibited by the Corporations Act from holding office or continuing as a Director;
- (d) is prohibited from holding or is removed from the office of Director by an order made under the Corporations Act;
- (e) is liable to have a person appointed, under a law relating to the administration of estates of persons who through mental or physical incapacity are incapable of managing their affairs, to administer it, or becomes in the opinion of the Directors incapable of performing his or her duties;
- (f) resigns by notice in writing to the Company;
- (g) is removed by a resolution of the Company;
- (h) becomes bankrupt or makes any general arrangement or composition with his or her creditors;
- (i) is absent from Directors' meetings for 6 consecutive months without leave of absence from the Directors;
- (j) is directly or indirectly interested in any contract or proposed contract with the Company and fails to declare the nature of the interest as required by the Corporations Act;
- (k) is not or is no longer a fit and proper person as required under section 47 of the Education Act 1990 (NSW) including that the Director cannot make a statutory declaration that he or she is a fit and proper person as required, gives such a statutory declaration that the Chairperson determines is false or misleading, or engages in conduct such that he or she is no longer able to make such a statutory declaration;
- (l) is or becomes a registrable person for the purposes of the Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000 (NSW); or
- (m) ceases to be a Member of the Company.

33. Casual Directors

33.1 The Board shall have power at any time, and from time to time, to appoint any member to the Board for a period of up to 2 years, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing Directors of the Board but so that the total number of Directors of the Board shall not at any time exceed the number fixed in accordance with clause 30.1 and with a view to maintaining the rotation of the board by staggering the director appointment terms.

33.2 A Director appointed under clause 33.1 is, subject to clause 31.3, eligible for re-election or re-appointment as a Director.

34. Powers and duties of Directors

34.1 The business of the Company is managed by the Directors who may exercise all powers of the Company that this Constitution and the Corporations Act do not require to be exercised by the Company in general meeting.

34.2 Without limiting the generality of clause 34.1, the Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to:

- (a) borrow money;
- (b) charge any property or business of the Company;

- (c) issue debentures or give any other security for a debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any other person; and
 - (d) guarantee or to become liable for the payment of money or the performance of any obligation by or of any other person.
- 34.3 At all times while the Company is a Registered Entity, each Director is subject to, and must comply with, the following duties:
- (a) to exercise the Director's powers and discharge the Director's duties with the degree of care and diligence that a reasonable individual would exercise if they were a director of the Company;
 - (b) to act in good faith in the Company's best interests, and to further the purposes of the Company;
 - (c) not to misuse the Director's position;
 - (d) not to misuse information obtained in the performance of the Director's duties as a Director of the Company;
 - (e) to disclose perceived or actual material conflicts of interest of the Director;
 - (f) to ensure that the Company's financial affairs are managed in a responsible manner; and
 - (g) not to allow the Company to operate while insolvent.

35. Directors' meetings

- 35.1 A Director may at any time, and the Secretary must on the request of a Director, call a Directors' meeting.
- 35.2 A Directors' meeting must be called on at least 48 hours written notice of a meeting (including an agenda and notes of the matters to be raised in the meeting) to each Director.
- 35.3 It is not necessary to give notice of a meeting of the Directors to an Australian resident whom the Secretary, when giving notice to the other Directors, reasonably believes to be temporarily outside Australia.
- 35.4 By attending a Directors' meeting, a Director waives any objection he or she may have had in relation to the notice of meeting.
- 35.5 An accidental omission to give notice of a meeting of Directors to any Director or the non-receipt of such notice by any Director does not invalidate the proceedings at or any resolution passed at the meeting.
- 35.6 Subject to the Corporations Act, a Directors' meeting may be held by the Directors communicating with each other by any technological means by which they are able simultaneously to hear each other and to participate in discussion.
- 35.7 The Directors need not all be physically present in the same place for a Directors' meeting to be held.
- 35.8 Subject to clause 39, a Director who participates in a meeting held in accordance with this Constitution is taken to be present and entitled to vote at the meeting.
- 35.9 Clauses 35.4 to 35.7 apply to meetings of Committees as if all committee members were Directors.
- 35.10 Subject to this clause 35, the Directors may meet together, adjourn and regulate their meetings as they think fit.
- 35.11 A quorum for meetings of Directors is five Directors.
- 35.12 Where a quorum cannot be established for the consideration of a particular matter at a meeting of Directors, the chairperson may call a general meeting to deal with the matter.

35.13 Notice of a meeting of Directors may be given in writing or in person, or the meeting may be otherwise called by fax, email, telephone or any other technology consented to by all the Directors.

36. Decision on questions

36.1 Subject to clause 37, questions arising at a meeting of Directors are to be decided by a majority of votes of the Directors present and voting and, subject to clause 39, each Director has one vote.

36.2 The chairperson of a meeting does not have a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberative vote.

36.3 Subject to the Directors' duties and applicable law, no decision can be made on a matter raised in Directors meeting, if not included in the agenda and notes about distributed 48 hours beforehand. This rule does not apply in dealing with matters in respect of which the Directors present consider, acting reasonably, that it would be detrimental to the Company not to be dealt with at the meeting (including matters relating to emergencies).

37. Special Matters

37.1 The Directors shall ensure that the Company does not undertake any of the matters set out below without a majority vote of at least 75% of the votes cast by Directors present and entitled to vote on the matter:

- (a) the sale or purchase of assets having a value greater than $200,000;
- (b) the borrowing of, or entering into any borrowing arrangement in respect of, an amount in excess of $100,000;
- (c) the adoption or material variation of any business plan;
- (d) the adoption or material variation of any operating budget;
- (e) the adoption or material variation of any clause of the governance charter;
- (f) the making of any loan, credit facility, guarantee, or any other type of financial accommodation to any person otherwise than in the ordinary course of business and in accordance with the terms of this Constitution;
- (g) departure from the accounting standards or principles prescribed by law for the preparation of its accounts or financial statements;
- (h) the incorporation of a subsidiary or entry into any partnership, joint venture or agency agreement;
- (i) any material commercial transaction between the Company and a related party of the Company (as defined in section 228 of the Corporations Act); and
- (j) subject to paragraph (b), the incurring of liabilities having a value greater than $100,000.

38. Payments to Directors

No payment will be made to any Director of the Company other than payment:

- (a) which is in reimbursement for out of pocket expenses incurred by the Director in connection with the operation of the School in the performance of any duty as Director of the Company where the amount payable does not exceed an amount previously approved by the Directors of the Company and is substantiated or supported by appropriate documentation as determined by the Company;
- (b) for any service rendered to the Company by the Director in a professional or technical capacity, other than in the capacity as Director, where the provision of the service is required for the operation of the School and has the prior approval of the Directors of the Company and where the amount payable is approved by the Directors of the Company and is not more than reasonable market value;

- (c) of any salary, wage or remuneration due to the Director if the Director is an employee of the Company where the terms of employment have been approved by the Directors of the Company; and
- (d) relating to an indemnity in favour of the Director and permitted by section 199A of the Corporations Act or a contract of insurance permitted by section 199B of the Corporations Act.

39. Directors' interests

39.1 As required by the Corporations Act, a Director must give notice to the other Directors of any material personal interest in a matter that relates to the affairs of the Company.

39.2 No contract made by a Director with the Company and no contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director may be in any way interested is avoided or rendered voidable merely because of the Director holding office as a director or because of the fiduciary obligations arising out of that office.

39.3 No Director contracting with or being interested in any arrangement involving the Company is liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by or under any such contract or arrangement merely because of the Director holding office as a director or because of the fiduciary obligations arising out of that office.

39.4 A Director is not disqualified merely because of being a Director from contracting with the Company in any respect.

39.5 Subject to clause 38, a Director or a body or entity in which a Director has a direct or indirect interest may:

- (a) enter into any agreement or arrangement with the Company;
- (b) hold any office or place of profit other than as auditor in the Company; and
- (c) act in a professional capacity other than as auditor for the Company, and the Director or the body or entity can receive and keep beneficially any remuneration, profits or benefits under any agreement or arrangement with the Company or from holding an office or place of profit in or acting in a professional capacity with the Company.

39.6 A Director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a Directors' meeting must not:

- (a) be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting; or
- (b) vote on the matter,

unless permitted by the Corporations Act to do so, in which case the Director may:

- (c) be counted in determining whether or not a quorum is present at any meeting of Directors considering that contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement;
- (d) sign or countersign any document relating to that contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement; and
- (e) vote in respect of, or in respect of any matter arising out of, the contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement.

39.7 A Director may be or become a director or other officer of, or otherwise interested in, any related body corporate or any other body corporate promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as a vendor, shareholder or otherwise and is not accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefits received by the Director as a director or officer of, or from having an interest in, that body corporate.

40. Remaining Directors

- 40.1 The Directors may act even if any of the directors' positions are vacant.
- 40.2 If the number of Directors is not sufficient to constitute a quorum at a Directors' meeting, the Directors may act only to:
- (a) appoint a Director; or
 - (b) call a general meeting.

41. Chairperson

- 41.1 The Directors may by simple majority appoint, remove and replace a Director as chairperson of Directors' meetings and may determine the period for which the chairperson shall hold office (save that any chairperson shall cease to be chairperson if they cease to be a Director).
- 41.2 If no chairperson is appointed or if the chairperson is not present at any Directors' meeting within ten minutes after the time appointed for the meeting to begin, the Directors present must elect a Director to be chairperson of the meeting.
- 41.3 The Directors may elect a Director as deputy chairperson to act as chairperson in the chairperson's absence.
- 38.4 The chairperson must fluently speak and write in both French and English. The chairperson must be a Member Director.

42. Delegation

- 42.1 The Directors may delegate any of their powers, other than those which by law must be dealt with by the Directors as a board, to a committee or committees (each a Committee).
- 42.2 The Directors may at any time revoke any delegation of power to a Committee.
- 42.3 At least one member of each Committee must be a Director.
- 42.4 A Committee must exercise its powers in accordance with any directions of the Directors and a power exercised in that way is taken to have been exercised by the Directors.
- 42.5 A Committee may be authorised by the Directors to sub-delegate all or any of the powers for the time being vested in it.
- 42.6 Meetings of any Committee will be governed by the provisions of this Constitution which deal with Directors' meetings so far as they are applicable and are not inconsistent with any directions of the Directors. The provisions apply as if each member was a Director.

43. Written resolutions

- 43.1 The Directors may pass a resolution without a Director's meeting being held if all the Directors entitled to vote on the resolution sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document. The resolution is passed when the last Director signs.
- 43.2 For the purposes of clause 43.1, separate copies of a document may be used for signing by Directors if the wording of the resolution and statement is identical in each copy.
- 43.3 Any document referred to in this clause may be in the form of a facsimile or electronic transmission.
- 43.4 The minutes of Directors' meetings must record that a meeting was held in accordance with this clause.
- 43.5 This clause applies to meetings of Directors' committees as if all members of the committee were Directors.

44. Validity of acts of Directors

If it is discovered that:

- (a) there was a defect in the appointment or election of a person as a Director or member of a Committee; or
- (b) a person appointed to one of those positions was disqualified,

all acts of the Directors or the Committee before the discovery was made are as valid as if the person had been duly appointed and was not disqualified.

45. Minutes and Registers

45.1 The Directors must cause minutes to be made of:

- (a) the names of the Directors present at all Directors' meetings and meetings of Directors' committees;
- (b) all proceedings and resolutions of general meetings, Directors' meetings and meetings of Directors' committees;
- (c) all resolutions passed by Directors in accordance with clause 43;
- (d) all appointments of officers;
- (e) all orders made by the Directors and Directors' committees; and
- (f) all disclosures of interests made under clause 39.

45.2 Minutes must be signed by the chairperson of the meeting or by the chairperson of the next meeting of the relevant body.

45.3 The Company must keep all registers required by this Constitution and the Corporations Act, including a register of Members (Register).

46. Appointment of attorneys and agents

46.1 The Directors may from time to time by resolution or power of attorney executed in accordance with section 127 of the Corporations Act appoint a person in accordance with clause 46.2 to be the attorney or agent of the Company:

- (a) for the purposes;
- (b) with the powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those exercisable by the Directors under this Constitution);
- (c) for the period; and
- (d) subject to the conditions,
determined by the Directors.

46.2 An appointment by the Directors of an attorney or agent of the Company may be made in favour of:

- (a) any company;
- (b) the members, directors, nominees or managers of any company or firm; or
- (c) any fluctuating body of persons whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Directors.

46.3 A power of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with an attorney as the Directors think fit.

46.4 An attorney or agent appointed under this clause may be authorised by the Directors to sub-delegate all or any of the powers authorities and discretions for the time being vested in it.

Secretary

47. Secretary

- 47.1 If required by the Corporations Act, there must be at least one secretary of the Company appointed by the Directors for a term and at remuneration and on conditions determined by them.
- 47.2 The Secretary is entitled to attend and be heard on any matter at all Directors' and general meetings.
- 47.3 The Directors may, subject to the terms of the Secretary's employment contract, suspend, remove or dismiss the Secretary.

Inspection of records

48. Inspection of records

- 48.1 Except as otherwise required by the Corporations Act, the Directors may determine whether and to what extent, and at what times and places and under what conditions, the financial records and other documents of the Company or any of them will be open for inspection by Members other than Directors.
- 48.2 Except as otherwise required by the Corporations Act, a Member other than a Director does not have the right to inspect any financial records or other documents of the Company unless the Member is authorised to do so by a court order or a resolution of the Directors.

Notices

49. Service of notices

- 49.1 Notice may be given by the Company to any person who is entitled to notice under this Constitution:
 - (a) by serving it on the person; or
 - (b) by sending it by post, facsimile transmission or electronic notification to the person at the person's address shown in the Register or the address supplied by the person to the Company for sending notices to the person.
- 49.2 A notice sent by post is taken to be served:
 - (a) by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the notice; and
 - (b) on the day after the day on which it was posted.
- 49.3 A notice sent by facsimile transmission or electronic notification is taken to be served:
 - (a) by properly addressing the facsimile transmission or electronic notification and transmitting it; and
 - (b) on the day of its transmission except if transmitted after 5.00pm in which case is taken to be served on the next day.
- 49.4 If a Member does not have an address recorded in the Register a notice will be taken to be served on that Member 24 hours after it was posted on a notice board at the Company's registered office.
- 49.5 A Member whose address recorded in the Register is not in Australia may specify in writing an address in Australia to be taken to be the Member's for the purposes of clause 49.

- 49.6 A certificate in writing signed by a Director, Secretary or other officer of the Company that a document or its envelope or wrapper was addressed and stamped and was posted is conclusive evidence of posting.
- 49.7 Subject to the Corporations Act the signature to a written notice given by the Company may be written or printed.
- 49.8 All notices sent by post outside Australia must be sent by prepaid airmail post.

50. Persons entitled to notice

- 50.1 Notice of every general meeting must be given to:
- (a) every Member;
 - (b) every Director; and
 - (c) any Auditor.
- 50.2 No other person is entitled to receive notice of a general meeting.

Audit and accounts

51. Audit and accounts

- 51.1 The Directors must cause the Company to keep written financial records in relation to the business of the Company as required by law.
- 51.2 The Directors must cause the financial records of the Company to be audited or reviewed as required by law.

Winding up

52. Winding up

- 52.1 If the Company is wound up:
- (a) each Member; and
 - (b) each person who has ceased to be a Member in the preceding year,
- undertakes to contribute to the property of the Company for the:
- (c) payment of debts and liabilities of the Company (in relation to clause 52.1(b), contracted before the person ceased to be a Member) and payment of costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and
 - (d) adjustment of the rights of the contributories amongst themselves,
- the amount of $2.00.
- 52.2 If any surplus remains following the winding up of the Company, the surplus will not be paid to or distributed amongst Members, but will be given or transferred to a corporation which, by its constitution, is:
- (a) required to pursue similar charitable purposes to those pursued by the Company or have charitable purposes inclusive of those pursued by the Company;
 - (b) required to apply its profits (if any) or other income in promoting its objects; and
 - (c) prohibited from making any distribution to its members or making payments to its directors (other than in circumstances contemplated by clause 38), such corporation to be determined by the Members at or before the winding up and, in default, by application to the Supreme Court of New South Wales for determination.

Indemnity and insurance

53. Indemnity and insurance

- 53.1 To the extent permitted by law and subject to the restrictions in section 199A of the Corporations Act and other applicable statutory restrictions, the Company indemnifies every person who is or has been an officer of the Company against any liability incurred by that person:
- (a) as an officer of the Company; and
 - (b) to any person other than the Company or a related body corporate of the Company, except where the liability arises out of conduct on the part of the officer which:
 - (c) involves a lack of good faith; or
 - (d) is contrary to the Company's express instructions.
- except where the liability arises out of conduct on the part of the officer which involves a lack of good faith or is contrary to the Company's express instructions.
- 53.2 Without limiting the generality of clause 53.1, the Company indemnifies, to the extent permitted by law and subject to the restrictions in section 199A of the Corporations Act and any other applicable statutory restrictions, each Director and every other person who is or has been an officer of the Company from and against any and all liability for costs and expenses incurred by the person in his or her capacity as officer of the Company:
- (a) in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in favour of the person or in which the person is acquitted; or
 - (b) in connection with an application, in relation to those proceedings, in which the Court grants relief to the person under the Corporations Act.
- 53.3 The Company may, and may agree to (by deed or otherwise) to the extent permitted by law and subject to the restrictions in section 199B of the Corporations Act:
- (a) enter into a contract insuring a person who is or has been an officer of the Company or a related body corporate of the Company against all liabilities incurred by the person as an officer of the Company or a related body corporate of the Company; and
 - (b) pay or agree to pay a premium under any such contract.
- 53.4 Subject to the Corporations Act and without limiting a person's rights under this clause 53, the Company may enter into an agreement (including a deed) with a person who is or agrees to become or has been an officer of the Company to give effect to the rights of the person under this clause 53, or to the exercise of a discretion under this clause 53, on any terms and conditions that the Directors think fit. Any such agreement may also give the person rights to inspect and obtain copies of the books of the Company for the purposes, and on such other terms and conditions, as the Directors decide.
- 53.5 For the avoidance of doubt, the Directors may authorise the Company to enter into any agreement (including a deed) permitted by this clause 53.
- 53.6 The amount of any indemnity payable under this clause 53 will include an additional amount (GST Amount) equal to any GST payable by the officer being indemnified (Indemnified Officer) in connection with the indemnity (less the amount of input tax credit claimable by the Indemnified Officer in connection with the indemnity). Payment of any indemnity which includes a GST Amount is conditional upon the Indemnified Officer providing the Company with a GST tax invoice for the GST Amount.

- 53.7 If, for any reason and by any means, any tax is or would be imposed on a person in respect of any sum paid or payable to the person under this clause 53 (Indemnity Payment), then the amount of any indemnity payable under this clause 53 will include any additional amount required to ensure that the total amount retained by the person (after allowing for the amount of such tax and after taking into account any tax deduction or tax benefit available to the person, at any time, that is attributable to the liability or legal costs to which the Indemnity Payment relates) is equal to the amount that would have been retained by the person if such tax was not imposed in respect of the Indemnity Payment. Payment of any such additional amount is conditional on the person providing the Company with all information and assistance reasonably required to enable the Company to calculate and verify the amount.
- 53.8 For the purposes of this clause, officer has the meaning given to that term in section 9 of the Corporations Act and includes any Auditor and any person who is not a Director but who is, or has been, a member of a Committee to which the Directors delegated any of their powers pursuant to clause 42.
